

Glyn Roberts

International Business Management (CASP)

Glyn is an international education development specialist with expertise in Latin America and Southeast Asia.

He has many years of experience in developing partnerships in education between British and Asian Higher Education Institutions through his role as Director of Asia Study Links. As Director, he lived in Japan, Hong Kong and Thailand.

He has also lived in Latin America, working in British and other government services.

Now, he teaches Social Sciences in two Cambridge based private colleges and has a five year background in private tutoring in the Cambridge area. He is also Founder Chairman and Trustee of the Atlantic School for Young Leaders. www.asfyl.org

As a trustee of United World Schools www.unitedworldschools.org Glyn supports schools partnership development both in the UK and overseas.

