Foundations in Philosophy and Philosophy in Literature

I am a graduate of Oxford and Sussex universities who has been teaching undergraduate and A-level students in all areas of both Philosophy and Theology for fifteen years. I completed my doctorate on the work of the Danish philosopher Soren Kierkegaard in 2009 and have an article on Kierkegaard and Levinas published in a volume entitled 'Despite Oneself: Subjectivity and its Secret in Kierkegaard and Levinas'. I am currently working on a textbook for the Philosophy in Literature course.
